The Ahmedabad Air India plane crash is heartbreaking. My thoughts are with every person who has lost their loved ones in this terrible accident. In these darkest of moments, we stand together in grief and solidarity.

WOMEN RUN SOCIETY BUT DON'T RECEIVE THEIR FAIR SHARE

At a Mahila Nyay Samvaad in Gaya ji, Rahul Gandhi listened to women's concerns, which included delayed MGNREGA payments, unemployment, and rising education and grocery costs. While acknowledging women as society's backbone, Rahul Gandhi emphasised how women are denied their rightful share and recognition. He pledged that under a Maha Gatbandhan government in Bihar, one woman from every poor family would receive Rs 2,500 monthly to honour their hard work.

MATCH-FIXING MAHARASHTRA

In my article, I express concerns about the 2024 Maharashtra Vidhan Sabha elections. Using official data, I expose a five-step playbook: rigging the ECI's appointment process; adding fake voters to the roll; inflating turnout figures; targeting booths where the BJP is weak; and finally, concealing the evidence. The leap in the BJP's strike rate – from 32% to 89% in just 5 months – raises alarming questions on electoral integrity. Like match-fixing in sports, rigging an election irreparably damages institutions and public trust.

BIHAR: FROM THE LAND OF AHIMSA TO CRIME CAPITAL

At a Samvidhan Suraksha Sammelan in Rajgir, Bihar, Rahul Gandhi emphasised Bihar's historical legacy of truth and non-violence that shaped the world. He criticised Nitish Kumar and Narendra Modi for allowing the state to deteriorate into a crime capital. He asserted that the BJP would resist conducting an authentic caste census because true data would destroy their politics of hate.
